Lo sconto indebito di un euro sui biglietti dei cinema parrocchiali

Il cinema «Gabbiano» di Senigallia (in via Maierini, 2, non a caso, vicino al Duomo) contrariamente alle supposizioni di Giampaolo Cerri (Italia-Oggi di sabato 19 febbraio) non è un locale della Curia affittato a gestori privati ma è una multisala con tanto di bollino da cinema parrocchiale. Sulla sua propaganda infatti si legge esplicitamente che tale multisala aderisce all'Acce. Il cinema ha due sale al chiuso e un'arena aperta estiva e quindi è un piccolo multiplex. Godrà dell'esenzione della tassa da un euro per biglietto, pur essendo un locale cinematografico come gli altri e non come gli scalagnati film parrocchiali di un tempo in cui si proiettava su un lenzuolo «Marcellino pane e vino» e dove, se due si baciavano, sia pure castamente, c'era sempre, pronto, il curato che, zac, metteva la mano sul proiettore e oscurava ruspantemente il tutto. Insomma, in questo caso, l'esenzione è una violazione bella e buona delle regole della concorrenza.
