

PROGRAMME

“Where are the women directors in European films? Conference on EWA study findings and best practice recommendations”

Location:

HomeBase
Köthener Strasse, 44,
Berlin - near Potsdamer Platz

Saturday 13 February (11am-1pm)

Pre-reservation required - places limited

In the context of the launch of EWA's pan-European study on best practice and policy recommendations pertaining to the presence or rather the relative lack of presence of women directors in European films, EWA Network, in collaboration with Directors UK, Women in Film and TV UK, Pro Quota Regie, FERA and WFTV Germany, is organizing a conference at the 2016 Berlinale.

Which measures may be most suitable at national and European levels? How do the findings compare with received expectations in this area? What surprises came up from the study? How did Germany and UK compare with the other countries in the study?
